PRESS RELEASE
For Immediate Release

October 12, 2012

At 8:22 p.m. Thursday, October 11th, Bedford County Sheriff's deputies responded to a call from a female reporting a domestic dispute at 1871 Wheatland Road, Bedford.

Upon arrival, deputies found the caller lying in the driveway with stab wounds to her abdomen. The victim advised that her husband, Kenneth, had stabbed her.

She was transported to Carillon Roanoke Memorial Hospital.

Deputies then arrested Kenneth Fitzgerald, age 56, at the scene and charged him with malicious wounding. He was transported to Bedford County Memorial Hospital for treatment to cut wounds to both his wrists. He was then transferred to the Blue Ridge Regional Jail in Bedford, where he is being held without bond.
