DROWNING

Bedford, Virginia – On July 14, 2009 deputies with the Bedford County Sheriff's Office responded to 3047 Horseshoe Bend Road in response to a drowning call. Upon arrival deputies found two subjects engaged in CPR on a four year old child who had apparently fallen into a private above-ground pool. Deputies continued CPR until rescue personnel arrived on scene and took over care of the child. The child was transported to Roanoke Memorial Hospital where he was unable to be revived and was pronounced dead. Bedford County Sheriff's Office Investigators responded to the location and the investigation is still ongoing.
